

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY™
SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH CENTER

Communication Intern Spring 2022

Job Description:

The Social Science Research Center at MSU is seeking a communication intern to work 10-15 PAID hours a week for the Spring of 2022. Job duties will include writing for center publications and websites, assisting with video and photography projects, editing content and design of websites, and aiding with social media campaigns. Learn more about the SSRC at ssrc.msstate.edu.

- Write feature stories, news releases, and additional content for SSRC print publications and websites
- Assist with script writing and planning of video projects
- Utilize equipment and software for photography and video needs of center
- Create graphics for social media and publications
- Support website content design and planning

Requirements:

- Excellent writing skills
- Ability to communicate professionally and interview faculty and researchers
- Sophomore or higher
- Good academic standing
- Experience with photography, video or graphic design preferred

How to Apply:

Submit resume, 2 writing samples, and contact information for 2 references to Emile Creel.

Contact information:

Emile Creel, communications coordinator
emile.creel@ssrc.msstate.edu
662.325.8102